	Be with the students taking the AP Psychology exam today and the AP English Literature and Comp exam on Wednesday.	Thank you, Lord, for blessing our students with gifts in the arts, as we saw in our theater performances and art fair this past week.	Thank you, Lord, for blessing our spring sports teams. Bless all of our athletes with leadership skills for a lifetime.	Be with our seniors and help them to finish the year with diligence as they pursue excellence in their classes.	Be with our track athletes at the state tournament this weekend.	Bless our Tuition Assistance Program with ample funds to assist families.

In your wisdom, provide for us the needed faculty, staff and coaches for this coming year.	Be with the students who are taking the AP Biology exam today, AP Calculus exams tomorrow, and the AP History exam on Friday.	Bless Scott Loberger, math instructor and coach, as he celebrates his birthday today.	We thank you for the gifts and talents of teachers and staff. Strengthen them to work tirelessly for you, Lord, and bless our students through them.	Be with our golf athletes at the state tournament today and tomorrow.	Bless Paul Drewitz, our building and grounds assistant, as he celebrates his birthday on Sunday.	Bless the participants in today's elementary school Solo Ensemble Festival, and the 8th grade students taking the freshman placement tests.

Thank you, Lord, for loving and protective mothers. Bless them today and always.	Thank you for the faithful dedication of this year's A Cappella choir, especially the seniors. Be with those who are auditioning for next year's choir.	We thank you for the talents you give to our students, whom we recognize today at the Scholastic and Fine Arts Awards and the Honor Society Inductions.	Thank you for faithful pastors who instruct our students in your Word each week during chapel.	Guide the seniors as they take their final semester exams today and tomorrow.	Thank you for the blessings of our new Spanish teacher this year, Mrs. Kandi Rosales. We ask for God's blessings on the birth of her third child.	Guide our seniors to show Christian leadership now and after graduation.

Be with the members at Emmanuel in Tempe and the A Cappella choir as it travels there today.	Grant fun, safety, and fellowship to the seniors on their class trip.	Thank you for the faithful service of Kandi Rosales, Andrea Indahl, and Scott and Kelly Loberger whom we will recognize at the Commencement Concert.	Thank you for the blessing of experienced teachers. This year, we celebrate Ms. Oppermann (5 years of ministry), Mrs. Steinmetz (25), and Mr. Gray (40).	Bless Lynnette Stahmann, our International Student Coordinator, as she celebrates her birthday today.	Bless the students' efforts in the Commencement Concert tonight, and thank you for our alumni, many of whom attend our concert tonight.	Strengthen, guide, and uphold our 38 graduates in the Class of 2017.
